

Marianne Olsson English & Swedish speaking Experienced facilitator & moderator

Customer Experience

Rebecca Westring, Program Director at the new Årstafältet: Marianne always looks at the big picture and it is evident in her way of planning for communication before, during and after a meeting, workshop or dialogue. She has the ability to highlight both subjects and speakers through careful planning and proactivity - in everything from setting the right expectations for feedback afterwards. She creates commitment to both speakers and audiences and always ensures that the messages are delivered and that the meeting also achieves the predefined goals, whether it concerns internal or external meetings.

Linda Lagerdal, Director of Program Planning, Fastighetsnytt & Business Arena: Marianne is a responsive moderator who always prepares well for her assignments. She is read and coaches the speakers in a good way so that their messages are adapted to the target audience.

Kristina Andreasson, Director Communications at Veidekke: Marianne is a good sounding board to our speakers and panelists she coaches in formulating messages and interesting questions that engage the audience. She is always briefed, ensuring that the speakers' messages are delivered upon and that questions and conversation on stage becomes alive by including the audience.

Swedish Courts feedback questionnaire: *- Professional, created a good atmosphere and scored beyond our evaluation chart (Director General) - Very professional & well versed - Fantastic & error free. - Asked knowledgeable questions. - Great time keeping. - Exceeded expectations.
